

THE LACLEDE BLADE.

Volume 32, Number 40

LACLEDE, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1922.

$1.00 A Year in Advance

TOWN AND COUNTRY

About Local People and Events and Other Matters of Interest

Some hogs to exchange for young cattle. T. E. Sisson.

Special! Palm Olive soap 3 cakes for 25¢. The Home Store.

Red Clover seed for sale, 1920 crop. Chas R. Facto, Laclede.

Extracted honey, 20 cents the pound in ten pound pails. A. P. Higgins.

Three fine young Duroc male hogs, weight about 130, for sale. Call phone 142.

Back to the good old days. Bread 5c the loaf, 6 loaves for 25c. The Home Store.

Soda fountain now running and will have ice cream Saturday noon. Plowman Cafe.

The next number of the lyceum course will be given Monday evening, February 13, and the last number February 28.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat has an advertisement in The Blade today announcing a big reduction in subscription rates.

Watch our windows! If you are posted on the price of merchandise you can readily see we are offering you real bargains. The Home Store.

The Southland Duo, two beautiful daughters of the Southland, will fill the second number of the lyceum course at the opera house next Monday evening.

The Gazette reports that a big chunk of ice got the better of J. W. Haight at the railroad ice house in Brookfield last week and Mr. Haight emerged from the tussle with a broken wrist.

The big Duroc bred sow sale of Clingfelter & Son will be held at Jersey Farm three miles south of Laclede next Thursday, February 16, to begin at 1:00 o'clock. This is a fine offering of pure-bred stock and will no doubt attract breeders of red hogs from many sections of the country.

A spark started a fire on the roof of the Anderson House about daylight last Monday morning. The blaze had just started when it was discovered by Mail Carriers Baum and Finney who gave the alarm and with a few buckets of water saved the building with but slight damage.

L. E. Eichman received a telegram Wednesday announcing the death of his nephew, James Curtis, at Decatur, Ill. Curtis was in the train service of the Walbash and was killed in the yards at that place. The young man's parents live at Sumner and the remains were brought there for burial yesterday.

For your information: Cash wheat has advanced 14c within the past two weeks, May futures 17c and July futures 22c. We have a car load of White Loaf and Super flour rolling which we expect at any time and you will make no mistake in getting our price on flour for we are in a position to save you money. The Home Store.

The second number of the lyceum course will be given at the opera house Monday, February 13.

Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burnett delightfully entertained the L. C. N. club and their families Friday evening at their pleasant rural home. Oysters, celery, pickles, pie, cocoa, coffee and delicious home made candy were served. Those present were G. W. Anderson and family, Z. R. Kling and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kling, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Anderson and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Facto and little son, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Facto and daughter, J. L. Mouser and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McDonnell, James A. Wood and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Anderson, C. E. Goosey and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Burnett and little son, Mrs. Dora Figgee, Miss Ellen Watson, Miss Roberta Havens, Miss Naomi Burnett, Miss Ruth Burnett and Esther Burnett, O. Y. Watson, John W. Wallace, Clyde Balcom, Frank Goosey and Harold Balcom. Music, and games were enjoyed. At a late hour the guests departed declaring Mr. and Mrs. Burnett most delightful host and hostess.

New Postmaster For Laclede

Among the federal appointments announced from Washington Monday was that of Carl F. Sayles to be postmaster at Laclede. As he has no opposition he will be promptly confirmed by the senate and should receive his commission and take charge March 1st. Mr. Sayles is pleasant and accommodating and withal a good fellow and ought to make a good public servant.

Wolf Drive

One hundred or more farmers in the territory northeast of Laclede will engage in a big wolf drive next Tuesday. The bunch will be divided into four squads, Alden Burd of route two, Laclede, being captain of the southwest squad. The W. R. Peacher farm is the southwest corner of the territory to be covered. Those who are to take part are expecting an exciting time as numerous wolves have been seen in that territory lately.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Ezra Pease entertained at her home in the east part of town Friday night for her son, Ezra, Jr., it being his fourteenth birthday anniversary. There were twenty-five of his schoolmates, boys and girls, present, and all enjoyed the fine time they had. The evening was spent with music and games. Ezra received a number of useful presents and delicious refreshments of pineapple sherbert and cake were served.

Farm Speaking at Forker

W. D. McKee, from the state agricultural bureau, will speak at Forker next Monday night, February 13. Mr. McKee is one of the best posted men in the state on farm matters, is a good talker and those who attend the meeting next Monday night will hear something worth while.

The P. E. O's met Wednesday evening with Mrs. F. F. Pratt. Roll call was magazine clippings. Mrs. Christina Bassett was made a member of the sisterhood. Delicious refreshments were served.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

While sawing wood with a power saw at his home north of town Friday, E. E. Cowan had the misfortune to lose the thumb of his right hand. It was sawed off about half way between the first and second joints. The wound was given immediate medical attention and is reported healing nicely.

Every nook and corner of your home can be cleaned in the most effective and sanitary manner with a Royal Electric Cleaner. The Royal will pick up all the threads, lint and scraps after sewing, and leave the rug clean and bright as ever. Phone Caywood & Baum for demonstration and also for the easy terms on which this remarkable cleaner can be bought.

On invitation from the farmers of that vicinity, Sam Jordan, Missouri's corn man, will speak on farm subjects at the South Eagle church on Saturday evening, February 11, at 7:30 and again Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. All are cordially invited to come out and here Mr. Jordan as he is always an interesting speaker on matters pertaining to crops and farming generally.

Regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers at the assembly room of the high school building next Wednesday afternoon, February 15, at 3:00 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Marsh will have a paper on "The Parent's Obligation to the School," and Miss Barber will have a paper in regard to Parent-Teacher work. Parents be sure to attend and help your children in the pennant contest. Your presence counts.

Thirty-five members of the Brookfield Rebekah lodge came to Laclede Monday evening and conferred the degree for the local lodge on a class of ten candidates consisting of Mrs. Jessie Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Line, Mrs. Mary Legate, E. J. Finney, Miss Zoe Stutsman, Mrs. Ocie Wilson, Ward Stutsman, Everett E. Cowan and Walter Mossbarger. After lodge closed supper was served to about 70. The lodge is having a revival and expects to initiate another class in the near future.

The patrons of telephone line 95 had an oyster supper Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover F. Peacher. Music and rook were the diversions of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arnold and baby, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stark and family, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stark and baby, Mrs. W. R. Peacher and children, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Farrar, Miss Lizzie Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Grover F. Peacher and family. All had such an enjoyable time that it was voted to make it an annual affair.

Frank J. Black has been appointed postmaster at Meadville.

R. N. A. Installation

Installation of Royal Neighbor officers was held at the home of Mrs. R. T. Patterson last Friday. The new officers are Ida Groes, oracle; Idah Moore, vice oracle; Effie Landree, chancellor; Neal Welsh, past oracle; Ella Ong, recorder; Hettie Weaver, receiver; Lula Welsh, inner sentinel; Sarah Kranz, outer sentinel; Mary Welsh, Pearl Power and Maud Thurman, managers.

The graces are Essie Glenn, Faith; Nellie Barber, Unselfishness; Cora Heath, Endurance; Lillie Hall, Modesty; Lutitia Weaver, Courage; Dr. F. W. Burke, physician.

The work was nicely done by Neighbors Spokesfield and Allie Harter. The next meeting will be held at the home of Neighbor Groes, February 24.

The Eyes Have It

A pair of pretty blue eyes change Wallace Reid's politics in his new picture. "Hawthorne of the U. S. A." Arrived by chance in an obscure little European kingdom where a revolution is brewing, Wallie is recruited to the side of the conspirators, who have their eyes on the money which he won when he broke the bank at Monte Carlo a week previous. But the handsome star has in the meantime leaped over a high wall and discovered the lady of his heart. When he learns that she is the Princess of the country, he shifts over to the royalist side in a jiffy and not only saves her life but turns a bankrupt kingdom into a prosperous, progressive republic by injecting some American pep and system into it. Lila Lee is Mr. Reid's chief feminine support in this delightful romantic comedy, which will be shown at the Laclede theatre Saturday night.

Notice

All parties who may be required to make state income tax reports are requested to call and get blanks for same. These reports must be returned to the assessor on or before March 15, next.

John L. Welsh,
Twp. Clerk.

Sale of Big Type Poland Chinas

Public sale of Big Type Pure Bred Poland China bred sows and gilts, also a few fall boars. All have been treated with serum and viris for cholera. Sale to be held at Meadville, February 16, 1922. For catalog write W. R. and Douglas Sallee, Wheeling, Mo.

Shippers' Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Laclede Shipping Association will be held at the directors room of the Lomax & Standly Bank in Laclede on Saturday, February 18, 1922, at 2:30. Four members of the board of directors are to be elected. All members are requested to attend and be on time that the business may be disposed of promptly.

G. L. Kranz, President.
V. E. Hogsett, Secretary.

R U Coming?

Why, to the "Thread of Destiny," of course. The snappiest little southern comedy-drama you ever saw, at the DeGraw, Brookfield, Wednesday, February 15. Admission 50 and 25 cents.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Brief Mention of Those Who Come and Go During the Week

Wm. Kraft spent Wednesday in Kansas City.

Here's a real buy! Six 10 oz. bars Lenox soap for 25¢. The Home Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver of Chillicothe spent Sunday with Laclede relatives.

Mrs. N. E. Wheelbarger attended the funeral of a relative in Sumner Monday.

Mrs. T. J. McIntyre spent Monday and Tuesday visiting friends in Brookfield.

Albert D. Mustapha and Fred O. Hanson are at Malcom, Iowa, on business this week.

J. E. West, after spending the past six weeks at his home here, has gone to Colorado.

W. G. Breeden, a young man from Jamesport, is a new book-keeper at the Talbott grain office.

Miss Beatrice Lomax, of Chariton county, was the weekend guest of Miss Georgia Loesa Welsh.

Mrs. Stella Showalter of Whitam, Mo., visited Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barton a part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McWilliams of Bucklin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lomax on Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Felt and two sons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Groetcke in Brookfield last Sunday.

Z. R. Kling was up in the northeast part of the county Wednesday and landed an order for a Delco light system.

Get our prices on incubators and brooder stoves before you buy elsewhere. We'll save you money. The Home Store.

Miss Lois Young, student in a training school for nurses at Kansas City, visited over Sunday at the L. Brendahl home.

J. Clair Lomax, on his way to Chicago to buy goods for his firm at Los Animas, Colo., stopped off here Thursday night and is spending today with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lomax.

E. E. Benson, who has been here the past six months looking after the affairs of the Benson Bank, of which he is president, left Wednesday to join his family at Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Judge O. F. Libby, Wm. Kraft and Dan Holmes were witnesses in Daviess county circuit court at Gallatin Tuesday in a case growing out of the trading of a stock of goods here a couple of years ago.

A. A. Johnson & Sons will hold a public sale of surplus stock at their farm five miles southeast of Laclede next Tuesday, the particulars of which will be found in an advertisement in The Blade today.

Ralph Eichman and family, moving from Canon City, Colo., to West Plains, Mo., spent Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Eichman. Ralph has traded his business at Canon City for a 160 acre farm in Howell county and was on his way to take charge.